Heavy Vote In City And County Is Indication

Check At Noon Shows 25 To 30 Percent Of Vote Already Cast

POLLS TO CLOSE AT EIGHT O'CLOCK

Lawrence County will poll a heavy vote today if the indications at noon mean anything.

At noon the average vote in the precincts checked showed between 25 and 30 per cent had cast their ballots. A percentage this high at noon usually indicates a total vote of 70 to 80 per cent.

Weather Ideal

The weather is ideal for an election day. A clear sky, a warming sun and temperatures that were above sixty made it possible for many older people and people who would not venture out in rain or snow, to get out and vote.

The history of elections in this city and county is that the bulk of the vote is cast between 4 and 8 p. m.

Mill and factory workers, office personnel and store clerks wait until they have finished their day's work before voting.

The polls are open all day until eight o'clock tonight. When the boards of the ninety-nine election precincts have completed their count the judge of elections takes the box to the court house where they are checked in and the day's compensation paid.

Sheet And Tube Company Talks Today On Strike

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 8.—(INS)—Youngstown Sheet & Tube company, fifth ranking steel producing company in the nation, scheduled "exploratory" talks with the CIO-United Steelworkers in Youngstown today.

An immediate settlement to end the 39-day-old strike is not expected when Herman J. Spoerel, the firm's manager of industrial relations, begins his talks with two CIO-USW representatives at 2 p. m. EST.

About 19,000 workers are employed in nine Youngstown Sheet & Tube plants in three states.

It is Election Day, and what a beautiful day, somewhat unusual. At 10:45 this morning there was not a cloud in the sky.

Weather conditions have been a little on the chilly side during the past few days, but a year ago, things were quite different, the high mark standing at 79 and 80 degrees respectively on the 6th and 7th, and then took a nose-dive with snow falling in small amounts on Armistice Day.

James Uber of Latrop street brought to the New Castle News office quite a large egg. It was laid on Sunday by one of a flock of Rhode Island Red chickens on the place of his father-in-law, A. T. Jennings, East Brook road. The egg is seven inches around the middle and 7 3/4 inches circumference over the ends. A number of other eggs have been laid, measuring 5 1/2 and 6 inches in circumference.

These Candidates May Show Trend

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Will Republicans or Democrats show increased strength as compared with '48, in New York and New Jersey election today. Political forecasters hope to spot a trend from showing made by these four candidates. Top: former Governor Herbert Lehman, (left), and Senator John Foster Dulles, (right), running, respectively, on Democratic, Liberal and Republican tickets for short term as United States Senator. Bottom: State Senator Elmer Wene, (left), Democratic, and Governor Alfred Driscoll, (right), Republican, are battling for New Jersey's top executive post.

Senate Race In New York State Reaches Climax

Voters To Decide Whether Lehman Or Dulles Goes To Senate

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—(INS)—More than 5,500,000 New York state voters choose a United States Senator today in the climax of a torrid campaign in which both President Truman and his 1948 White House rival, Governor Dewey, participated.

Ex-Gov. Herbert H. Lehman, Democrat and Liberal party candidate, was seen as a slight favorite over Republican Senator John Foster Dulles in the Senatorial race with some observers forecasting a Lehman margin of anywhere between 50,000 and 250,000.

But because of bewildering cross-currents and a record off-year vote which will approximate twelve per cent of all the ballots cast nationwide.

Lewis Gets Final Chance To Secure Separate Peace

By PHILLIPS J. PECK
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—The government's coal strike mediation schedule gives John L. Lewis one final chance today to get separate peace talks going with Illinois mine owners.

Federal Mediation Director Cyrus S. Ching will meet with a representative of the steel company "captive" mine interests this afternoon. He planned to confer with northern and western coal operators tomorrow.

Presumably, this will mean that the Illinois producers will have to be in Washington Wednesday for a federal mediation parley and thus end Lewis' attempt to split the industry.

Ching began mediation conferences Monday by talking for nearly three hours with Joseph E. Moody, president of the Southern Coal Producers association. Today, he was scheduled to confer with Harry M. Moses, head of U. S. Steel's coal mining subsidiary.

The mediation director also telephoned last night to Lewis, who is in Chicago meeting with the UMW's 200-man policy committee.

Ching said after his conference with Moody that "We know pretty well the position of the southern operators." He added: "I think we will be able to evaluate the whole picture much better after meeting with Mr. Moses and the northern operators."

Ching denied published reports of a Wednesday deadline on his mediation efforts.

Report Acheson Ready To Discuss Japanese Treaty

Secretary Of State Goes To Paris For Big Three Conference

MEETS VISHINSKY BEFORE DEPARTURE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Secretary of State Acheson is reported ready to discuss a Japanese peace treaty during his two days of talks with the British and French foreign ministers in Paris this week.

Acheson is said today to regard the talks as a continuation of the negotiations held in Washington last September, despite reports from Europe that the discussions would be confined to the German question.

Likely Topics

Topics discussed at the Washington conference, and thought likely to come up again this week, include:

1. Recognition of the Communist regime in China.
2. A peace treaty with Japan, even without the participation of Moscow and the Chinese Communists.
3. Support of Marshall Tito of Yugoslavia in his cold war with the Kremlin.

Since the September meeting, the United States has raised the question of a greater integration of the economy of Europe.

Economic cooperation administrator Paul G. Hoffman has told the Marshall Plan beneficiaries that they must do more to help develop their own trade if they hope to have continuing United States aid.

Leaves For Paris

Acheson left Washington last night for Paris. He was accompanied to a belated departure by President Truman. His chartered American overseas airlines constellation was held up by engine trouble.

As a result, Acheson and his party of advisors, left at 6 p. m. (EST) aboard a substitute, two-decker strato-cruiser.

Before his departure, Acheson conferred briefly with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky, who was host last night at a Soviet embassy reception celebration the 32nd anniversary of the Communist overthrow of the Czarist regime.

Vishinsky said after the 20 min.

Violence Marks Election Day In Philippines

MANILA, Nov. 8.—(INS)—The Philippines people went to the polls today in a bitterly contested presidential election marked by violence in which at least 16 persons were killed and many others wounded during the first hours of the voting.

Shootings, ballot box raids, kidnappings and other forms of terroristic outbreaks swept some 40 cities and towns throughout the island country, despite an eleventh-hour radio appeal for peaceful ballot-boxing by President Elpidio Quirino.

Quirino is running for reelection in opposition to Jose Laurel, head of the Nacionalista party, and Jose Avelino, candidate of a dissident wing of Quirino's liberal party.

Reports of disturbances began drifting in to Manila soon after an estimated 4,000,000 voters started trooping to the polling places.

Good Weather In State For Election

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Fair skies and mild temperatures today greeted early voters in Pennsylvania and the prospect was for more of the same.

The Philadelphia weatherman predicted continuing sunshine and readings of between 65 and 70 degrees in most parts of the commonwealth.

"There might be a few chilly places along the north border," he said, "but for the greater part it looks like an ideal day for the voters."

FIRE AT KINGSTON

KINGSTON, Ont., Nov. 8.—(INS)—Firemen brought under control today flames which for 13 hours threatened to destroy a cell block at the Portsmouth federal penitentiary near Kingston.

Armed guards surrounded the block while firemen fought the fire, attributed to defective wiring. Convicts remained orderly.

Secretary Acheson In Paris; Starts Conferring

By JOHN E. LEE
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

PARIS, Nov. 8.—U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson arrived in Paris today for a major three-power meeting and plunged immediately into a series of preliminary conferences.

Acheson, accompanied by 14 State department aides, arrived at Orly Field (at 7:30 a. m. EST) in a specially chartered Boeing Strato-Cruiser.

First Conference

His first conference was with U. S. Ambassador Bruce. He also talked with W. Averell Harriman, ECA Ambassador, and John J. McCloy, American high commissioner for Germany. Lewis Douglas, U. S. ambassador to London, is due in Paris early this evening.

The formal sessions with French Minister Schuman and British Foreign Secretary Bevin will begin tomorrow.

The French cabinet meanwhile met in extraordinary session. A spokesman said afterward that the Acheson-Schuman-Bevin talks will not be an exceptional event but simply one in a regular series of Big Three meetings.

He did admit, however, that the conversations assume a "certain

The News telephone exchange number is 4000. Calls with returns will aid the News and WKST in getting the information to the citizens of the county.

Memorandum Of Vishinsky Aimed At Paris Meeting

Report Vishinsky Gave "Cold War" Memorandum To Secretary Acheson

By PIERRE J. HUSS

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky is expected back in the United Nations today after reportedly presenting a memorandum on the "cold war" to Secretary of State Dean Acheson.

Although developments in the Paris three-power meeting are being awaited for signs of what effect the Vishinsky meeting with Acheson has had, it is hinted in Soviet circles at U. N. that the reported Russian memorandum was directly aimed at the Paris consultations.

Among the main points said to be raised in the aide-memoire to Acheson are the problems of German unity, the Austrian peace treaty and related issues in the cold war.

Among eastern sources close to the Soviet U. N. delegation, there is for the present neither confirmation nor denial that Vishinsky called for an early council of foreign ministers on Germany and Austria.

The Russian foreign minister was scheduled to return to Lake Success after playing host to the diplomatic corps in Washington in celebration of Moscow's annual "October revolution day".

Gold Fever In California Area

CASTAIC, Cal., Nov. 8.—(INS)—Gold fever gripped Castaic today and only the favorable report of a Bakersfield assaying laboratory is needed to turn the fever into a gold rush.

The possible strike was made yesterday behind the Scrabble Cafe, only a mile from Palomas canyon where there was wild activity in 1849 and where a nugget worth $2400 at today's price was found in the 1880's.

ONLY U. S. STEEL REMAINS SILENT (BULLETIN)

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Republic Steel Corporation reached an agreement with the CIO-United Steelworkers today which will send some 45,000 striking steelworkers back to work in nine states.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 8.—

One-third of the nation's striking steelworkers were either back or preparing to return to work today, and more steel firms are expected to come to terms with the CIO-United Steelworkers in the next few days.

Bethlehem Steel, the second making producer, and about 45 smaller companies had previously announced agreement with the USW.

Russia Plans Atlantic Pact Counter Force

By KINGSBURY SMITH
European General Manager, I. N. S.

PARIS, Nov. 8.—A secret report from behind the iron curtain and the appointment of a Soviet marshal of Polish army chief indicated today that Russia plans to unify its satellites into a counter force to the North Atlantic pact.

That belief was voiced in top-level diplomatic circles after Marshal Konstantin K. Rokossovsky took charge of Polish forces yesterday.

The strong opinion of these circles is that the next move may be the setting up of a Russian-dominated Eastern European general staff council to plan the Soviet bloc's grand-military strategy in Europe.

May Vote Today In Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Voters of Philadelphia flock to the polls today in a general election spelling the strongest challenge to traditional Republican rule in 60 years.

So keen was interest in the polling, featured by fights for the town major "Row Offices"—that some observers believed 800,000 of the city's 1,038,139 eligible electors would turn out.

The GOP held a huge advantage in registrations, with the lists showing 731,348 Republicans and only 285,823 Democrats.

You have to thumb back to 1881 to find the last Democratic Mayor elected in Philadelphia. He was Samuel G. King.

But the Democrats this year were counting on revelations of tax scandals and alleged inefficiency in Republican-controlled City Hall to swing the hesitant "silent vote" and independent citizenry.

Claims Effort To Purge Him From Congress

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—(INS)—The chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee charged today that an attempt is being made to "purge" him from Congress.

Rep. Wood declared that "outside sources" are endeavoring to line up a candidate for his Ninth Georgia district to oppose his re-nomination in next September's Democratic primary. The nomination is tantamount to election.

Wood stated that "two or three young men" had been approached and had been advised that if they would run against him they would receive "ample financial backing."

A little piece of paper in a booth, and voter with a pencil, there forth, is the democratic way when the people have their say, from the oldest to the twenty one year youth. It's the day the people say just who shall be, in the seats of power of democracy, so remember it's your task, who to vote for, you should ask, the weather's ideal just as sixty three.

Ellwood Scene Of Big Parade

Many County Posts Will Be In Parade Friday Morning At Ellwood

CELEBRATION

LASTS ALL DAY

Under the auspices of the Lawrence County Committee of the American Legion, with the Ellwood City Legion and V. F. W. posts as hosts, the annual county Armistice Day celebration will take place on Friday, with a big parade in the morning, football game in the afternoon, and dance at night.

The parade will start at 10:30 o'clock, and will form at Crescent avenue and Fourth street, and will traverse the business section of Ellwood City. Promptly at 11 o'clock, the marchers will pause, and will stand in reverence in memory of the World Wars dead.

Many units from different sections will be in the line of parade and assist in making the spectacle a big one.

Grid Game

In the afternoon, the Ellwood City V.F.W. Bolt Busters will tangle with the Pleasant Valley Smilers of the Pittsburgh district, in what is expected to prove a thrilling football game.

The dance in the evening for all veterans and their wives will take place in the Sons of Italy Memorial hall on Lawrence avenue.

With Ellwood's principal industry down because of the steel strike, and the stores cooperating by closing all day long the event shapes up as a big one.

The city has already been decorated with flags and bunting, and this year's event promises to be one of the finest held in many years.

FIGHT GRASS FIRE

Castlewood firemen of the Shannago Township Volunteer fire department fought a large grass fire today at noon at the Castlewood ball park.

The department with the assistance of residents was able to extinguish the blaze before any property was damaged. It threatened a barn for a while.

Heightening interest in the voting today is the three-cornered race for mayor of New York. The nation's largest city, among Mayor O'Dwyer, the Democratic incumbent; Newbold Morris, Republican-Liberal-City Fusion candidate, and Rep. Vito Marcantonio, American Labor party nominee.

O'Dwyer also was the favorite in advance predictions, but Morris hopes to edge into City Hall by a small margin.

In addition, the state's voters will elect an associate judge of the court of appeals, 46 upstate mayors and a host of other city, county, town and village officials.

With voting machines used in all of the 9,565 election districts the polls opened at 6 a. m. and will close at 7 p. m.

also based on a secret diplomatic intelligence report received two weeks ago from behind the iron curtain.

The report stated that the Kremlin was planning to send a leading Soviet marshal either to Budapest or Warsaw to establish an Eastern general staff headquarters composed of Russian and satellite military strategists.

The report added that the purpose of this high command would be the formulation of military plans to meet the situation created in Europe by the security system of the western powers under the Atlantic pact.

PARIS, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Secretary of State Dean Acheson arrived at Paris's Orly field at 1:30 a. m. (Paris time) 7:30 a. m. EST today for tomorrow's meeting with British and French foreign ministers.

Acheson was accompanied by 14 state department aides in a specially-chartered Boeing strato-cruiser.

He was greeted by U. S. Ambassador Bruce, rowing Marshal Plan envoy Harriman and Charles Lecca, assistant chief of protocol of the French foreign office.

Acheson paused long enough to tell newsmen there was no truth to the published report that Russian Foreign Minister Vishinsky had asked him yesterday to arrange a conference between President Truman and Premier Stalin.

He brusquely declined to comment on other questions and sped off in a U. S. embassy car.

Inland Steel, with 13,500 steelworkers, has asked that the USW meet with its representatives in East Chicago, Ind., today, and settlement appears to be near there, too.

Additional firms — Allegheny-Ludium and Wheeling Steel, among others—also were making gestures toward settlement.

U. S. Steel Silent

Only United States Steel, the largest in the nation, with 150,000 union members, was silent among the major producers. U. S. Steel spokesmen said no contract had been made with the union. Apparently USW-CIO President Philip Murray was willing to let "big steel" wait.

The 63-year-old union leader announced the J.&L. settlement at his offices in Pittsburgh just before 1 a. m. EST. He appeared tired but jubilant at the addition of another major firm to the union's list, and said the workers had been ordered to report for duty immediately.

J.&L. officials would not comment beyond saying that their plants would resume production as soon as possible. They appeared to be tired, too, after their negotiation sessions, which had been in progress almost eleven hours.

This is Election Day. To those who haven't voted yet, forget your politics and vote for good reliable men, so we can preserve the integrity of this great Commonwealth of ours.
We had an awful scare this week. Mrs. Campbell and myself went down town to attend to some business. When we arrived back home, we were very much surprised, and in fact, very much scared, as on our front porch was quite a large, well-crafted box. The first thing I thought of, was that they had removed our "A" zone, and somebody was unloading fish, to start a fish market, or maybe a fur coat, to sell fur coats. I got out of my car speedily and when I opened the box, I certainly did relax, as these supposedly goods were not what I had in mind, but were only repairs for my heater. We were both relieved and thankful, that we did not have to share our property with someone in another line of business.

NO GREATER PERIL

We have just read a revealing analysis of Federal internal-revenue collections showing that the Government's "take" from the pocketbooks of the American people last year averaged $1,073 per family. In the Middle Atlantic States, including Pennsylvania, it was $1,555, highest in the Nation.

The significance of the figures concerns every citizen of the Lehigh Valley.

They appear in The New England Letter, published by the First National Bank of Boston, and reminds us that the Government has no magic source of income, but must depend upon tax revenue collected from all parts of the country.

Total taxes paid by the people of all the States and Territories equal the aggregate amount of income of the United States Treasury except in case of deficit periods.

So staggering is the amount of money spent by the Federal Government that few persons can have any conception of its magnitude.

The figures carry more meaning when it is pointed out that for the year 1948 Federal internal-revenue collections, which totaled $42,302,864,000, were equal to all the wages and salaries of the 15,000,000 workers employed in all the factories and mines of the country.

State and local receipts for 1948 exceeded $17,000,000,000. This is nearly the equivalent of the wages and salaries of 6,000,000 more workers.

It would take the wages and salaries of 40 per cent of all persons engaged in gainful non-Government pursuits to pay all the bills of Government.

Yet, as the letter says, the illusion still prevails that the Government has some mysterious mean of providing an unlimited source of funds.

Our margin of safety is critically narrow. Taxes have been taking one-fourth of the national income in the boom period. The proportion would rise sharply if the annual income should undergo even a moderate decline.

Our Federal debt of $250,000,000,000, or $6,297 per family, is a mortgage on future income. Notwithstanding this situation, additional commitments are being recommended under the administration's program.—Allentown, Pa., Chronicle and News.

WINGS OF THE LORDS

All during the legislative campaign that the British laborites have been waging against capitalism, the House of Lords has been emulating the one made immortal by Gilbert and Sullivan. That body, it will be remembered, "Throughout the war did nothing in particular—and did it very well." This one has followed that example.

In the eyes of the socialists, however, the inactivity of the House of Lords has been anything but amusing. For the ancient upper branch of the British Parliament does have the power to delay, if little else, and it has been holding back the socialist program with all its mastery inertia. It has given Prime Minister Attlee so much trouble that he long ago decided to weaken this last obstacle to complete socialization.

On November 11 the socialist government will pass, on third reading, its bill to cut down the period of delay the House of Lords can impose from two years to one. From then on the opposition of the Lords will delay a piece of legislation for 12 months only.

So the road will soon be paved for the government's bill to nationalize the steel industry. This bill has already been passed once and it needs to be passed only once more under the legislation whittling down the power of the Lords.

The House of Lords, to the American mind, is a strange institution. But it has a long record of distinguished service to the British nation. More than once it has saved the British people from disastrous mistakes through its collective wisdom. Now its influence will be less.

PLAN FOR ARCTIC SURVIVAL

The armed services have made two more dramatic advances aimed at survival of the United States troops fighting in polar weather.

Designed particularly for Arctic use, the food packet is packed in a rectangular metal can and weighs one and one-quarter pounds. It contains cereal, sweetmeats, fruit, almond chocolate, sweet chocolate, starch jelly in bars, soluble coffee and tea, bouillon, chewing gum and sugar tablets.

After two years of research, Army engineers also have come up with a portable, pre-fabricated troop shelter made of aluminum-faced panels measuring eight by four feet each. The shelter is said to be capable of withstanding Arctic winds of 125 miles an hour and temperatures down to minus 65 degrees.

Evidently there is to be a 1950. At least the calendars are out announcing the fact.

Silent movies would be hard to take nowadays. Just look how much plainer we could hear the popping of bubble gum.

Five indicted Armorg officials put up cash bail. It is said that checks were refused. Maybe the government officials thought the checks were made of red rubber.

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. OESTREICHER, INS Foreign Director

A revolutionary measure which, if enacted into law could alter customs that have prevailed for generations and transform Europe from a cauldron of war into a forum of international understanding has been presented to the world in Paris.

It is hardly likely of realization. It has taken the form of a mere recommendation by a committee of the Council of Europe that the foreign secretaries of nations concerned consider the practicality of an international passport.

But under the terms of cooperation laid down under the initiative of Winston Churchill, it must be placed upon a council table agenda at some future date.

"U. S. of Europe"

Britain's great wartime prime minister was not only the prime mover in the Council of Europe which functions as president. He is the strongest protagonist of what he wants to be known as a "United States of Europe"—a magnificent organization of states that would reproduce in the old world the free-flowing democracy that is the hallmark of the new.

There are, however, junkies of barriers that at times seem to be unpenetrable.

The question of languages arises immediately. Those of customs and varying currencies cannot be avoided.

And in view of the fact that the United States itself—as stressed by ECA Administrator Paul G. Hoffman—is the prime mover in the plan for an integrated Europe, there is the important consideration that crippling passport requirements persist within the western hemisphere.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

FAULTS IN TRAINING OF TEACHERS

Celebrating its fiftieth birthday the Pennsylvania State Congress of Parents and Teachers, at its recent convention at Philadelphia set up a fund of $12,000 to award two scholarships to students entering elementary teacher training in the teachers' colleges of that State. The money was contributed by local PTA's throughout the state. Because of the shortage of trained elementary teachers, this is one of the finest services this organization has ever rendered. Let us hope that other states will do likewise.

A few months ago I said in this column that I wished teachers colleges trained in teachers colleges would get more education and less "education." To this Dr. James G. Johnson, teacher of Journalism, Mount Union College, responded:

"For 15 years of experience which includes teaching at both teachers' colleges and liberal arts colleges, I have concluded that almost any graduate of liberal arts course would make a better teacher than the top-ranking graduates of almost any teachers' college, granted the same love for teaching on the part of both."

"The reason is as you say, too much 'education' and not enough education; in other words, a too limited background in the teachers' colleges."

"Many teachers' colleges have attempted to remedy this by increasing their offerings in 'subject matter' and liberal arts fields, but that does not help much. Books are only part of the trouble, with major weakness resting in the teachers themselves. It becomes a sort of vicious circle something like this:

"Early in the evolution of the teachers' college, it was a normal school, state supported with resulting low or no tuition. Most of its students came from homes with little money and less background or culture, which may or may not be a synonym. Their fear of money may have been better, but if these students were the replacement when the teachers left or retired."

"So as time passed, the faculty of the teachers' colleges was comprised for the most part of the graduates of the same or other teachers' colleges. The backgrounds were not much improved nor were the students during their college careers since their teachers had about the same background. Too many of the students were alike for them to gain much from each other."

"Regardless of how much the students may have obtained from books, they were not educated to more than a very limited extent, assuming that by definition an education takes care of the 'whole man' and books affect only a small part of him. And for too long the teachers' colleges even limited their books! As far as 'education' majors are concerned, they still do since there is little room for electives in a teachers-training program."

"Being a psychologist myself, I am a bit biased in favor of more emphasis on the child's development and how he feels and learns and thinks; and I believe that some of the required courses labeled 'education' are diluted with a lot of worthless lingo. I see by the papers that some of the educators of Columbia University agreed at a recent conference that they might profitably get along with fewer words. Maybe a bit more knowledge in history, sciences and mathematics by the teachers of our children would do no harm."

I wonder what my readers think about this matter.

BIBLE THOUGHT

And the house, when it was in building, was built of stone made ready before it was brought thither: so that there was neither hammer nor ax nor any tool of iron heard in the house, while it was in building.—1 Kings 6:7.

America south of the Rio Grande, these perplexing formalities which have so often led to international disagreements, have been virtually abolished.

It is quite possible to travel between Chile and Argentina or between Argentina and Uruguay, for example, with the possession of nothing more than a police identification card. This is virtually identical with the draft registration of the United States during the war—signature, date of birth and fingerprint, available without formalities on the payment of a few cents.

There is, however, severe United States travel regulations to the countries of Latin America which were imposed for important reasons and which have resulted in retaliations by the nations in that sphere.

Airlines, steamship companies and travel agencies consistently are making every possible effort to encourage exchange of visits between North and South Americans. But there is no question that these endeavors are impeded by the strict regulations that have been put into effect and remain unamended by later legislation.

Entails Difficulties

So far as the Council of Europe idea is concerned, it entails far more difficulties than those embodied in the inter-American zone.

On the side of the globe there are but three languages—English, Spanish and Portuguese.

Across the Atlantic, there are not only the national tongues but the almost innumerable native languages of countries that throughout the centuries have failed in achievement of their own local integration, to say nothing of fulfillment of such an ideal on an international scale.

The poor success of the backers of Esperanto in creating a universal mode of speech that is based on a platform of "hope and culture" is proof of this.

It is somewhat ironic perhaps, that in the present state of a divided world, this original idea of a language that all could speak and write should have sprung from a Russian. He was an oculist named Zamenhof who lived in Warsaw in the 19th century and published a paper on the project under the pseudonym of "Esperanto."

The idea, while apparently impractical, persists along with the legend of the Loch Ness monster and the supposition that Adolf Hitler is still alive and living in luxury on an estate in Argentina's faraway Patagonia. Nevertheless, it has been placed upon the program of coming events and perhaps that is an achievement in itself.

MOSCOW.—Deputy Soviet Premier Georgi Malenkov: "It is not we but the aggressors who should be afraid of war."

WASHINGTON.—Lloyd H. Norman, naval writer: "Those who look ahead into the future of warfare are convinced that the submarine will become the primary instrument of naval attack."

VIENNA.—U. S. high commissioner in Austria Gen. J. D. Balmes: "It is important that anyone who negotiates with the Soviets over a long period maintains a firm and fair attitude until they finally come to know you as an individual whose word they can trust."

THE PASSING OF CHARLIE McBLOW

(A Community Chest feature)

A public spirited sort of Joe McBlow was likeable good-time Chuck. But he was, we'll admit, just a little bit slow. When some local charity asked for dough.

To solicitors, he'd say, "Hey! Do you think I'm made of money. But let's have a drink." And on this treat he'd squander a buck. But the Home for the Aged was out of luck.

The Girl Scouts asked for half a dollar. And you should have heard our Charlie holler. "Me give to them? Say, I'm no fool. I'll spend that half on a football pool."

"Yes the Salvation Army is quite all right." He agreed with a fellow who called one night. He boosted the outfit, supported their claims. But he spent their money to bowl three games.

The Community Nurses he turned down cold. And the same day parted with some of his gold. To replenish his home supply of gin. Just in case some friends dropped in.

The Y.M.C.A. wanted help from him. But he answered, "Heck, I can't swim. I take my family to see a show." Where did three bucks of his money go?

Y.W.C.A. picked the wrong time to stop. He had just splurged on weeds at the Smoker's Shoppe. "I'm sorry, pal, right now I'm broke." So their contribution went up in smoke.

Getting Strangle Hold

Washington Calling

(By Marquis Childs)

Czechoslovakia Is Example

FRANKFURT, Germany, Nov. 8.—The evidence grows that in every way, both big and little, the countries in the Russian orbit are carrying out the mandate of Moscow and squeezing out all elements that might offer even the most remote potential resistance. The conspicuous example, partly because American correspondents still in Prague report the country is poorer because of the drive to squeeze out the middle class and eliminate the small factory and the small-shop owner.

According to reports trickling out of Czechoslovakia, this is largely propaganda. Fore the time being at least, production has been impaired and the country is poorer because of the drive to squeeze out the middle class and eliminate the small factory and the small-shop owner.

The small producer always has been an important part of the Czech economy. Figures for May of this year showed that 240,737 small firms had 753,601 employees. This included not alone retail distributors but 27,207 firms fabricating iron and steel with an average of less than four employees each. When the Sudeten Germans were driven out, many of the most able craftsmen in the production of glass and novelties, important in Czechoslovakia's prewar export trade, also were driven out.

Efficiency Doubtful

Whether even in the long run new collectivized units will be more efficient is certainly doubtful. The trend in the United States is away from centralization and toward decentralization, experience having shown that the giant plant was often less efficient than the small plant.

Czech propaganda makes much of the fact that certain essentials have been taken off the ration. But the fact is that the moment they go off, the price goes sky high and the commodities are difficult or impossible to obtain.

There is one outstanding reality about the Czech economy today which should cause policy-makers in Washington to give serious thought to a new approach to at least this one satellite. Without essential supplies from the west—rubber, cotton and so on—Czech industry could not continue to produce at even the present levels.

The time has come, in my opinion, to review the trade balance with Czechoslovakia. If the Czech export sent out to western Europe are not essential, and there is good reason to believe they are not, then it may be merely self-interest and ordinary common sense to stop the flow of essential commodities.

Central War Economy

For the belief is growing among experienced observers that the real objective of Moscow in each of the satellite states is to build toward a central war economy. There is every reason why America should refuse to contribute to that process. The immediate enemy, against which all this effort, the purges and the ruthless collectivization is directed may be Yugoslavia. It may be defensive rather than offensive. But if the satellites can be reduced to complete subjection and the indications are that the resistance in Czechoslovakia to the current tyranny is more and more feeble and passive, then Moscow will have achieved a larger goal and the fate of Yugoslavia will in a sense be irrelevant.

What place was there, however, for a wistful, apologetic refugee of seventy? When he heard that the newspaper urgently needed messengers, he surprised the staff by applying for one of the vacant jobs.

His love of books is what undid him. He took longer and longer to complete his errands, and when finally he was discovered poring over some old volumes in a second-hand bookstore, he admitted that that was how he had been spending many of his working hours. He took his dismissal philosophically. "I guess it's just as well," he told the foreman. "I was spending too much on taxicabs anyhow."

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

For three full months recently a New York newspaper had a messenger "boy" who was over seventy years old, but few of the people who gave him fleeting or pitying glances as he shuffled by knew that in a happier day he had been the managing editor of one of pre-Hitler Germany's greatest newspapers. Idleness had driven him close to distraction in America, and finally like an old fire-horse, he had come back to the business he had known and loved.

Etiquette Books Fall Short

(By HENRY McLEMORE)

Books of etiquette are all right as far as they go, but like the dollar of today they don't go far enough.

None I have ever seen furnishes a man with a good working knowledge of how to handle gracefully hundreds of maddening aspects of modern life.

The books of behavior now available are invaluable if all a fellow wants to know is such things as whether to wear black or white gloves when shooting pool with a dowager, how to carve a kangaroo, whether a master plumber takes precedence over an antique furniture salesman when entering a dining room, and if it is fitting and proper for a father to pawn his daughter's engagement ring to be able to play a good thing at Belmont.

Information On More Vital Things

But what about information on more vital things such as, for instance, how to get a man out of a phone booth when he is in the only phone booth available, and has been in there long enough to have grown a beard?

Just what are you supposed to do when the man in the booth hangs up and you are saying to yourself, "Thank heavens he is coming out at last," he yanks out another coin and drops it in the slot?

You can't shoot him, because a silly law would get you in the hoosegow for such an action. And you can't open the door and hop him on the nose, being as most men who stay in phone booths for hours are always big, brawny, blue-whiskered cusses—or such has been my experience.

I do wish that Miss Post or some other authority on behavior would provide an answer.

And what about those washroom faucets which you have to hold to keep the water flowing and which Richard Armour has a little jingle about in the current Saturday Evening Post? Too many experiences with them will run a man crazy. Confronted by one of these taps, is it correct to go out in the hall and summon help—and then go out in the hall again all soaped up and get another helper to hold the tap while you get the soap off your hands? Or is it best just to tear your hair, scream and rant and jump up and down until an alarmed management promises to put in more sensible devices?

Also Would Like To Know

I also would like to know just how to behave and what to say when elevator operators (and this is especially true of department store operators, all of whom must be inbred from sardine canneries) jam so many riders in the elevator that a normal and necessary function such as breathing becomes an impossibility. I don't know how many times I have suffocated between women's lingerie and bicycle parts, and furniture covers and aluminum ware.

And I am sure everyone who ever wrote a column would like an answer to this one: What do you say to a man, woman, or child who asks why you don't write ten or fifteen columns in one day and then have two weeks of nothing to do? I have been asked this a thousand times, and I know my behavior has not been too nice. I just kick the questioner in the shins and break into big, heaving sobs.

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

WHOA!

What's the hurry? Where do you think you are going? To a fire?

Another speed record is broken, reads the dispatch just over the wire.

"An airplane, carrying forty passengers, landed at Willow Run Airport, Detroit, just 40 minutes and 27 seconds after leaving Chicago."

"The flight normally takes an hour and ten minutes."

Colossal! Marvelous! Ain't Man wonderful? Look at the way he saves you more and more time!

Seventeen hundred and seventy-three seconds saved on the trip from Chicago to Detroit! Who knows, maybe next year they'll cut another 27 seconds off that record and you'll have all that extra time to spend in Detroit.

I wish I had been in Detroit when that record-breaking plane arrived.

I would have liked to interview everyone of those forty passengers and asked just what they were going to do with those precious 1,773 seconds they saved.

We talk so much about time saving these days that we ought to look into that word "saving." The dictionary definition that applies here is this one: "to keep from being spent, wasted or lost; as to save one's time or strength."

So where did those forty record-breakers "save" anything? Did they put those 1,773 seconds to better advantage? Did they improve their minds, their pocketbooks, their health?

I myself, would have been so nervous with all that speed that I would have been useless for at least 24 hours by saving those

1,773 seconds. (I know, because I was once on a record-breaking flight from Pittsburgh to New York. We saved a half hour and I lost two days and several other things.)

"Whoa!" I say. What do they mean by "time-saving," anyway?

Time does not belong to you. It is a loan to you for your use. Every minute of your life is BORROWED time and eventually you have to repay every one of those minutes.

Do you know anybody who has ever been able to evade that debt? Can the wealthiest man in the whole world get one minute more than the poorest?

Life is a stern banker. There are no renewals of payments. There is no evasion of payments.

Time, wisely invested, is the greatest asset the human being has, particularly if it is combined with another asset—health. The only way to "save" Time is not to live faster, but to invest it wisely. But even then, in the end, the Great Collector comes for the last payment.

So—WHOA! (Copyright, 1949, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

One Man's Opinion

By Walter Kiernan

(By International News Service)

The Nobel Prize committee which gave no award this year in literature evidently didn't get around to reading any of the election pamphlets.

One candidate was reported so impressed with the biography written by his press agents that now he insists on his conscience addressing him as "mister" when it speaks. Then he says "Do you have an appointment?"

He was the one who said he rehearsed his speeches while shaving his whiskers. . . . Some thought he would have done better to save the whiskers and shave the speeches.

We should know in a few hours whether the better men have won or whether our candidates have lost.

But it was a real exciting campaign in New York. . . . The President's cabinet met in Manhattan for the first time since the government moved to Washington.

They came not only to enlighten and give strength to the people but to elect a few Democrats too.

Canada And France Make Proposal On Atomic Control

Proposition Is Presented To United Nations On Monday Afternoon

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Nov. 8.—(INS)—Canada and France formally proposed in the United Nations Monday that each member help achieve atomic control by renouncing national sovereignty where it clashes with world peace and security.

The French-Canadian resolution was presented to the 59-nation special political committee.

India called for a declaration banning atom bomb production and drafting of a control agreement by the international law commission.

The Canadian-French resolution followed a letter circulated to the eleven members of the Atomic Energy commission by Assembly President Carlos P. Romulo suggesting a truce in the atomic arms race, and prohibition steps.

Has Some Support
The Canadian-French resolution, which has some support among western delegates, requests the assembly to recommend "that all nations join in mutual agreement to renounce the individual exercise of such rights of sovereignty in the control of atomic energy as, in the light of the foregoing considerations, are incompatible with the promotion of world security and peace."

The resolution also asks the big five and Canada to continue their efforts to find a basis for atomic control agreement and to keep the U. N. fully informed of such results.

It calls upon the governments to do everything in their power to make possible "by the acceptance of effective international control the effective prohibition and elimination of atomic weapons."

SIDE LINES

Sometimes a man gets more income from a side line than from his main business.

Eating may be something like that too.

A fat person may arrange a meal of meat, potato, bread, fruit, lettuce and milk. That looks pretty sensible.

It could be considered as a very conservative meal.

It may be wrecked by the side-lines.

Meat and potatoes usually taste better with gravy on them.

Bread is usually eaten with butter on it. Lettuce is mostly dolled up with mayonnaise or some other oily mixture.

Peaches and cream seem to be inseparable.

The first thing you know, the side-lines or dressings amount to a lot more than the main dishes.

Gravy and butter and cream and oil dressing amount up pretty fast.

The earliest marine insurance contracts were recorded in England in 1583.

Dresden Craft Instructress Explains Art Program

Dresden Craft instructress, Mrs. Elizabeth Nelson of 313 Norwood avenue, explains her art to daughter Linda. Mrs. Nelson conducts classes in Dresden Craft at the Y. M. C. A.

Mrs. E. Nelson Will Begin Dresden Work

Local Woman To Conduct Dresden Craft Classes; Articles Resemble China

Would you like to make articles resembling authentic Dresden China? Are you thinking about what to give for Christmas gifts to your friends? Or perhaps you would enjoy having something new for your home. What could be appreciated more than a gift that is both lovely and hand-made.

Mrs. Elizabeth Nelson of Norwood avenue has recently introduced Dresden craft in New Castle. She has studied and worked to perfect her work, and as a result has many charming and unusual articles of her own design and creation.

Classes are conducted by Mrs. Nelson each Wednesday afternoon and evening at the Y.M.C.A. Forty-two persons are now registered for the work.

Resemble China

Figurines are available from William Ayers. Bits of lace, ribbon, flowers and other small objects are used for decorating the composition figurines. The entire article is then painted giving it a fine American Dresden appearance. No firing is required on the figurines, since they are not constructed in the same manner as real Dresden.

A display of the work done by Mrs. Nelson has been shown at the Pittsburgh Plate Glass company. In December an "Open house" is planned, at which time the work done by the students taking the course will be displayed for the public to view.

Another class is expected to be formed in the near future. Anyone interested in doing this interesting work may contact Mrs. Nelson by phoning 7075-R and making a reservation. Numerous articles, other than figurines, are being made by the group. Mrs. Audrey Beals is the assistant teacher and secretary-treasurer for the organization.

Take advantage of the opportunity to make these lovely and useful pieces of China for your own home or for gifts for others. Each article has that real "Dresden" look.

RELIEF FOR STRIKERS

CLAIRTON, Pa., Nov. 8.—(INS)—Clairton city council tomorrow will vote on a second ordinance to set up a relief fund for striking steel workers.

If tomorrow's vote is affirmative, council will borrow $10,000 to handle the first batch of applicants, who total about 300. The ordinance authorizes council to borrow up to $50,000 for relief purposes.

In 1949, Britain almost tripled its 1931 steel output with 14,877,000 tons.

Folks Of Fame

Samuel Taylor Coleridge was born at his father's vicarage of Ottery St. Mary's, Devonshire, Oct. 21, 1772. His first poem, published in a morning newspaper, brought him a guinea, and after it was spent he enlisted in the army. He wrote The Ancient Mariner to embody the dream of a friend, Kubla Khan, The Good Great Man, Answer to a Child's Question are some of his well known poems. He died July 25, 1834. Luciezia Bori was born Dec. 24, 1887, at Valencia, Spain, and educated in a convent. Her opera debut was made as Micoela in Carmen, at Rome, Italy, in 1908. Coming to America, she made her debut in the Metropolitan Opera in 1912. She was the Met's leading soprano from then until 1936, when she retired. She is chairman of the Metropolitan Opera association, Inc., and chairman also of the Metropolitan Opera Guild. She lives in New York City.

Prime Minister Of India Leaves With Good Feeling

Believes That Visit Strengthened Ties Between Orient And The West

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, prime minister of India, said Monday he was leaving the United States with deep gratitude for its hospitality and convinced that his visit has strengthened the ties between the Orient and the west.

The prime minister told a final news conference in New York.

"I have been received everywhere with overwhelming hospitality. This has made me very happy, and I am assured that I am leaving with the relationship between my country and yours greatly improved."

However, Pandit Nehru said that he has not changed his mind about the Communist issue as a result of his visit.

He said that "while not sitting on the fence," his nation does not intend to take sides in ideological struggles. But he reiterated that "India believes passionately in the Democratic method."

India and China

As for his nation's relationship with Communist China, the prime minister, who has retained personal direction of his country's foreign policy, said:

"India and China are not only neighbors, but are two huge areas on the earth's surface. It is inconceivable that we can ignore each other."

This was interpreted as an indication that India may recognize the Chinese Communist government.

However, Pandit Nehru said that while India's contact with China is now limited, how and when they may be increased "will depend entirely on circumstances."

NEW STAMP

A new stamp, commemorating the 75th anniversary of the Universal Postal Union, will go on sale at the local Post Office on Nov. 19. The 10-cent air mail stamp will go on sale first on Nov. 18, at the New Orleans, La., Post Office, it was announced.

The word "cheer" originally meant face, countenance or expression.

SCOUT TROOP 1 MEETS IN NEW ROOM TONIGHT

Scoutmaster Keith Van Fossan announces that the new scout room of Troop 1, sponsored by the New Castle Rotary club, is almost completed and the first meeting to be held in the new room will be tonight at 7:30. The room is adjacent to the old one under the stadium at Ben Franklin Jr. high.

The new age limit for Boy Scouts is now 11 years.

A well-made Swiss watch may go for a quarter of a century without replacement of a single part.

Chest Workers Making Big Drive For Goal

New Castle has two teams that are both seeking very important goals. The Red Hurricane football team has successfully completed its WPIAL league games without a point being scored against it and will start its championship at Pitt stadium November 26.

The second team is comprised of the entire citizenry of New Castle and the townships of Lawrence county. Its goal is to raise $127,350 for the Community Chest.

A winning team must have every member giving his very best at all times. The football squad is playing without an individual star and with three first team players out of the game with injuries, has shown this community what real spirit, team play, and the will to win can accomplish.

Team Has Spirit

Captains and division leaders of the Chest team, plus their more than 300 workers, showed that they had the necessary spirit by turning in a report last Thursday that showed $92,138, or 73 per cent of the goal has already been pledged or contributed. The workers have the will to win and have ably demonstrated it by carrying on more than a week after the campaign was originally supposed to close. They are prepared to carry on even longer so that 13 welfare agencies of the community will have the necessary funds to provide services for those who need it throughout the coming year. These workers have carried on despite economic handicaps and some very gruff, curt, and even discourteous answers to their volunteer solicitation for the betterment of the community.

Team	Captain	Quota	Raised	Percent
Financial	Alfred Owens	$ 5,500	$ 5,973	109
Real Estate	Robert Moore	2,100	1,229	60
Public Utilities	George Powes Jr.	6,200	4,757	77
Public Education	Dr. Frank Burton	2,500	2,611	105
Doctors, Dentists	Miss Mary Martin
Lawyers	Samuel Rashid	7,400	4,233	57
Charity Groups	Rev. Richard Marshall	700	471	67
Transportation	S. A. Mooney	5,200	2,366	46
Federal Directors	Rev. Arthur Wenger	1,800	436	25
Other Education	G. Crawford Lyon	500	146	29
Hospitals	J. Freidheim	1,100	512	47
Churches	Rev. J. Calvin Rose	800	421	53
Totals		$37,000	$24,977	68

The team play factor on the Community Chest varsity is still a questionable factor. The chart below is a record of the public service division in the Chest Drive. Homer Choate is the division leader. His group has succeeded in raising $24,977 or 67 per cent of its $37,000 quota.

It is almost typical of every division, of every team, of every player on the Chest squad. Some have done their share or more while others need to start carrying the ball.

Financial and public education has gone over the top. Some others have as little as 25 per cent of the goal. The result is not a personal condemnation of anyone but it proves conclusively that certain portions of the whole citizenry, the big team, have not successfully carried out their assignment. A winning team must have every player giving his all to be successful. Perhaps a captain has called a bad play but that is not signal for every player, the citizens on his team to quit. It does mean that to offset a blunder, or handicaps such as experienced this year, everyone from chest chairman to worker and potential contributor must really pitch in and make New Castle's Community Chest team a winner.

Methodist Pastors Plan Christmas Party At Epworth

Librarian Aided By Police In Reclaiming Overdue Books From Borrowers In City

Members of the city police department will continue to cooperate with the New Castle Public Library by aiding in the collection of overdue books.

Calls are being made in various parts of the city for books due during 1948 and up to August 1949.

The maximum fine for each book is 50c but to the library the important part is to recover the book and put it back into circulation.

Causes of the delinquency to return books are usually forgetfulness, loaning borrowed books to another person, or putting them into a book case with privately owned books. The effect is that other potential borrowers are deprived of their use.

By state law it is possible for the public library to bring suit against a person who borrows books and refuses to return them.

Symphony Opens Concert Season Wednesday Night

Local Musicians And Director Casbero Plan Inspiring Concert For Wednesday

The New Castle symphony orchestra, organized in the fall of 1948, is composed of 70 musicians from our community who have formed a permanent organization to foster music for educational, recreational and cultural purposes.

During the past season successful concerts were given in the Cathedral as well as in the Ben Franklin junior high school auditorium to enthusiastic audiences who left no doubt as to the need of such an organization in our community.

A concert is inspiring, as music is capable of firing the imagination in a way possible to no other art. It is indeed a compliment to New Castle that it is capable of producing such a well balanced symphony orchestra. The players show many qualities of musical temperament. The orchestra is under the direction of New Castle's own young conductor, Anthony Casbero, who has an enviable reputation throughout the area as an outstanding artist. Mr. Casbero's sincere devotion is felt by audience and orchestra alike and he has a fine feeling for innate musical values and a sense of the dramatic.

In the long run we will be the ones who will determine the success of the orchestra, that is, by our patronage and support. Each of us will agree that symphonic music is universally recognized as one of the necessary possessions of a cultivated community. Symphonic music was not created for artists alone, but for all the people, and the programs given by the New Castle symphony orchestra are planned to give musical enjoyment to all. The program of the coming season will be of appeal and will prove to be very attractive to the listener.

The presence of a large audience stimulates the orchestra to greater heights and one of the aims of the orchestra is to establish an annual series that will increase in future seasons and to bring these concerts within the reach of a wider public. Three concerts are scheduled to be given in the Cathedral this coming season; the first will be held on Wednesday, November 9, at 8:30 p. m. in the Cathedral auditorium.

Supreme Court Reverses Decision

Rules Georgia Can Claim Escaped Prisoners Despite Treatment By Jailers

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—(INS)—The Supreme Court on Monday reversed a U. S. Appeals court decision declaring that the State of Georgia is not entitled to reclaim escaped prisoners who were mistreated by their jailers.

The court's ruling was handed down in a case involving Leon Johnson who escaped from a Georgia prison camp in 1943 after being convicted of murder in the shooting of his paramour.

The court's action was announced in a brief "per curiam" decision which noted only that Justice Douglas took no part in the case. The matter was brought before the high court by Pennsylvania officials, who were barred from sending Johnson back to Georgia by the appeals court decision.

Johnson has been held in a Pennsylvania prison pending disposition of his case.

The appeals court, located in Philadelphia, set a precedent when it ruled that the state of Georgia was not entitled to return of chain gang fugitives who had suffered "cruel and brutal" treatment at the hands of their jailers.

If prisoners were mistreated, the appeals court declared, they are entitled to remain free after their escape.

In asking review, Attorney General T. McKeen Chidsey of Pennsylvania asserted that the federal court did not have jurisdiction and that its decision was erroneous.

Attorney General Eugene Cook of Georgia entered the case to attack the appeals court decision as "unseemingly contempt of a derogatory nature not in keeping with the respect due a sovereign state under the federal system."

Cook challenged the appeals court finding that Johnson had been subjected to cruel treatment, declaring it was "completely unsupported" by evidence in the lower courts.

Sole Survivor Of Plane Crash To Be Questioned

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—(INS)—The Civil Aeronautics Board hopes today to question Eric Rios Bridoux, sole survivor of an airplane collision over Washington National Airport that killed 55 persons.

Bridoux, Bolivian Civil Aeronautics chief, was pilot of a war surplus P-38 fighter plane that collided with an Eastern Airlines DC-4 last week, causing the death of all aboard the airliner.

A CAB spokesman said that statements made so far by the Bolivian, in Alexandria, Va., hospital with a broken back and pneumonia, are "neither coherent nor conclusive."

The board is particularly interested in learning the condition of the P-38 engines just prior to the accident. Examination of the wreckage indicates that one of the engines may not have been functioning properly.

It also was learned that Bridoux was not on the same radio frequency as the airliner at the time that the National Airport control tower was frantically telling both planes to change direction to avoid a crash. His ship had a military frequency, not the same as that used by civil craft.

DeLillo Being Sought By Police

Vincent DeLillo, Maitland street, is sought by police on a charge of possessing narcotics, the warrant having been signed by Lieutenant George Kennedy before Alderman J. C. Kennedy yesterday.

After he was arrested by Police-men Tewell, Russo and James he was searched and it is alleged narcotics were found on him.

While awaiting to be taken to the alderman's office he fled from police headquarters when officers' attention was monopolized by quizzing a young boy who was with De Lillo.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY FAILS

Attempt was made to enter and burglarize the Texaco station, South Mill street and Croton avenue, last night. The burglar was prevented from entering through a window he broke by bars.

Approximately 1,680 square miles of Wisconsin's 55,535 square-mile area consist of water.

Report Two British Ships Being Held Near Shanghai

HONG KONG, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Reports reaching Hong Kong today said a Chinese Nationalist warship is holding two British ships inside the three-mile limit at the mouth of the Yangtze river near Shanghai.

The vessels are the 2,000-ton steamer Tsinan and the 3,000-ton Wo Sang. The Tsinan is one of three British ships from Hong Kong that ran the Nationalist blockade into Shanghai a week ago.

Both ships were attempting to leave for Hong Kong.

The British frigate Alacrity is reported standing by just outside territorial waters. She is said to be ready to carry out her duties of protecting British ships and has warned the Nationalists of the fact.

The action follows a Nationalist threat to bomb British ships running the blockade into Communist ports such as Shanghai.

East Brook Seniors To Present Amusing Class Production

Hilarious Comedy To Be Staged
By Senior Class Of East
Brook High School

Tired of death of the movies and seeing shadows on the screen? Most people are. That's why it's really a pleasure to announce the forthcoming production of "A Husband For Sale" at the Eastbrook High School on November 18, by the senior class.

Here is a play that contains everything: rollicking fun, numerous witticisms, clever characterization and a situation that will leave you weak from laughter. The play is one long riotous turmoil, and each act is funnier than the preceding one.

A merry-go-round of events continues through to the last act. Two of the parts are black face characters, and they alone are worth the price of admission.

The leads in the play will be taken by Dick Hanna and Beverly McClelland. They will be supported by Carol Patterson, Bud Mayberry, Robert Hawthorne, Thomas Jones, William Pontias, Margaret Lyons, Reba Cameron, Goldie Sickafuse, and Marilyn Goodwill.

The entire production is under the direction of Mrs. Robert McCrumb.

TEN Remodeling Of Local Store Is Now Completed

Strouss-Hirschberg Company
Completes Two-Year Refurbishing Job

NEW DEPARTMENTS HAVE BEEN ADDED

One of the biggest improvement jobs ever undertaken by a local firm has now been completed, the Strouss-Hirschberg ending a two-year remodeling job last week when their basement department was finished and thrown open for public inspection.

Over 5,000 people visited the store on Saturday. Manager John O. Huston stated today. On this occasion the whole store was thrown open for public inspection, although most of the work had previously been completed, and the various departments had been in use for some time. This was the occasion for the grand opening of the basement department, the last to be completed.

Store Opened In 1929
Work on the remodeling project was started in January, 1948, when the Strouss-Hirschberg Co. took over the Frew Building in its entirety. Previously they had occupied only a part of the structure at the corner of North Mill and North streets, where they used three selling floors, following the opening of the store here in September 1929.

The store continued in operation all during the remodeling job, necessitating much moving about from floor to floor as the work progressed.

A sixth floor was added in the rear of the structure to house the latest type year-around air-conditioning system, a new elevator was installed, which is one of the most modern and safe installations in the city. It is automatically equipped to over any kind of accident, and the elevator will not drop even though the cables should be cut, it is stated.

An entire new lighting system was installed throughout the store, new stairways were built, and complete new fixtures were installed with a new scheme of interior decorating. All this has been combined to make the store one of the most modern in this section of the county.

The company now boasts five selling floors enabling them to add many new departments, which include a complete boys wear department; major and minor household appliances, houseware of all kinds, floor coverings, a year-around toy department, and radio and television department, in addition to the general department store items which were formerly carried.

Many fine comments have been received by the firm following the opening, event Saturday, Manager Huston states.

Extra Dividend At Local Plant

Pennsylvania Engineering Company Reports 1949 One Of Best Years For Plant

Board of directors of the Pennsylvania Engineering corporation at a meeting held November 7, declared a dividend of 20 cents per share and an extra dividend of 45 cents per share, both payable December 1, 1949, to stockholders of record November 15, 1949.

The board of directors also voted a Christmas bonus to all employees of the company.

William S. Wheeler, president of the Pennsylvania Engineering corporation, reported that the final results of the year 1949 probably will show the operations to be one of the best years in the history of the company.

The company has been building for its own use one of the largest annealing furnaces in the Pittsburgh district. This oil fired annealing furnace, which is now ready to put in service for annealing weldments, castings and other structures, has a capacity of 50 tons and is 20 feet wide by 20 feet high by 35 feet long.

The supply of materials on hand will enable the company to continue their present operating schedules until well into January, 1950.

4-H Achievement Week Is Under Way

Results Of Work During Past Year Will Be Checked During Week

This is 4-H achievement week, locally and nationally, when the work done by the boys and girls from the rural section of the county who are members of the 4-H club will be checked and recognition given.

Since the war 4-H enrollment has made tremendous gains. In Lawrence county, 368 boys and girls are enrolled, compared to 241 four years ago. In Pennsylvania, 4-H club ranks were swelled to 25,958, rated by projects, compared to 20,000 four years ago.

The affiliated Senior Extension clubs for older youths have an additional enrollment of 3,817 members in the state, bringing the total for rural youths engaged in educational and recreational training to 29,775. Both programs are conducted under the supervision of the agricultural extension service of the state, as a part of its program.

Governor Burns Guest Of Rotary

District Governor Jesse "Bob" Burns Addresses Club Monday Noon

PAYS OFFICIAL VISIT TO CLUB

District Governor Jesse "Bob" Burns, of Oil City, was guest of the New Castle Rotary club at its noon luncheon meeting in The Castleton Monday when he spoke about the influence of Rotary is exerting in behalf of international good will.

Rotary, he stated, is interested in good citizenship and as part of his duties a Rotarian should exercise his right of franchise. He urged members of the local club to be sure to vote tomorrow and to urge their friends to do likewise.

Cites Work of Mitchell

Governor Burns pointed out the great work that Angus Mitchell, immediate past president of International Rotary, has been doing in the interests of good will and international good feeling. Mr. Mitchell in a recent address stated that if peace is to come, hatred must go, and he warmly welcomed the re-education of Japan and Germany to the International Rotary family.

There is no such word as "foreigner" in the Rotary language, he quoted Mr. Mitchell as stating. "Race, creed and color are only surface marks and underneath one finds that a man's heart throbs are about the same things in life," Mr. Mitchell had stated.

Three Observers

He stated that Rotary has three observers attending the sessions of the United Nations and that they rendered regular reports to Rotary of what is going on and International Rotary is thus attempting to create an informed public opinion so that every Rotarian throughout the world can vote intelligently for those things which he deems are best in the interests of world peace.

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By DR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

Classes For Prospective Dads

Classes for expectant fathers! There are something new under the sun! In a few of our larger cities, today, you'll find a group of young men gathered together, eagerly looking at charts showing the yet-unborn baby, practicing bathing a life-size baby doll or discussing the way their wives are acting during the last months of pregnancy.

Such groups are usually under the auspices of a public health nursing service or a maternity center organization. Understanding nurses or doctors lead the discussions, answer questions and present pertinent facts.

Men who have gone through such a pre-paternal "course of sprouts" report that they don't worry as much about the dangers of childbirth, that they appreciate having enough understanding so that they can discuss the coming of the baby with their wives intelligently and that they have much more of a feeling of being a part of the whole process.

If your community never has heard of such a thing as a class for expectant dads, perhaps one can be stirred up. Modern young doctors, the public health nursing group or other competent people might be persuaded to experiment a little. Not all dads-to-be will want to come, but there'll be a good many who do.

It's an invincible "8"—that great Lincoln engine!

WHEN early performance reports from Lincoln owners first reached our ears, we were frankly skeptical. For in the first few weeks, every new car owner thinks his new car is the very finest car there is. Yet, month after month, the praise pours in unstintingly about the great new Lincoln engine. "It is capable," owners state, "of the smoothest performance on the road!" To which statement we heartily agree. For we have yet to see the new automobile—at any price—that can stand up to Lincoln on the highway. Literally, the great new Lincoln engine—with the automatic responsiveness of HYDRA-MATIC—is an invincible "8"—and not merely for sheer stamina alone. For dependability and economy, too, it is again in a class by itself. Why not try a new Lincoln or Lincoln Cosmopolitan on the road today? P.S. You can own one for much less than you may think.

Woman's Club Relives Olden Days In Memory

What did the proper young miss wear in the 1870s? Of what style were her ball gowns and her afternoon dresses? And when it came to being married, did she wear the traditional white satin?

These and many other questions were answered at the meeting of the Woman's club yesterday afternoon in the Highland United Presbyterian church. The members turned back the pages of time and once again viewed the fashion book of the Civil War period, "Godey's Lady's Review."

Gown used to present the pageant are owned by Mrs. E. E. Kirkwood of Youngstown, Mrs. Ada Chambers and Mrs. M. M. Diehl of Canfield, O. A history of the dresses discloses the fact that they were obtained from a Massachusetts family in 1878. The expensive fabrics, and intricate designs are definite proof that they came from a wealthy family.

Mrs. J. Edward Everett presided at the meeting. Program chairman, Mrs. Clarence Davis, introduced the players and said that the members would have an opportunity to get a glimpse of the past.

Trousseau Shown

To the strains of "Long Ago" and "After the Ball" played by Mrs. Jacob Jordan, Mrs. Diehl appeared in a white ball gown, featured with a dainty black lace shawl and fan. She is eager to let her aunt, portrayed by Mrs. Chambers, see the trousseau for her marriage to John Randolph, a Virginia man.

The first gown is of stiff purple taffeta, with a long jacket and tiny poke bonnet. Mrs. William Caldwell, soloist, sings "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia" as Mrs. Diehl promenades through the audience. You need only a little imagination to picture such a lady in the olden days.

For her wedding reception she chooses a gown of orchid taffeta. Its jacket is charmingly trimmed with fringe and velvet. The brilliant performance of the players is enhanced by subtle touches of humor, as the women exchange bits of gossip and amusing stories.

IN COURT HOUSE

Two equity suits have been filed in the office of Prothonotary and Clerk of Courts John A. Edgar in which spouses ask for a division of jointly held property.

Marion T. Connerly files an equity suit against David B. Connerly in which she asks that a receiver be appointed for the joint holdings and that the defendant be restrained from disposing of any of the other property pending a ruling. The plaintiff claims the defendant left Pennsylvania for Texas sometime ago and refuses to provide home for her and the children and that also there is some property and bonds here in a joint title.

William Sabik files an equity suit against Martha Sabik, also known as Martha Pherson. He alleges a divorce has been granted and that a division of property was made. The title to the automobile is joint and that Martha Sabik agreed to relinquish her interest in the car. This she has refused to do he claims and he asks that the court order it done.

Raise Question In
Taxi Driver's Death

SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 8.—(INS)—A question of murder was raised Monday in a ruling of a state workmen's compensation referee awarding $9,817 to the widow and three children of a Dunmore taxicab driver found dead from bullet wounds August 17, 1946.

Referee G. A. Carmalt, of Pittsburgh, made the award and said the victim, Angelo Cali, had "suffered an injury by accident" and as a result had died.

Cali was found in his cab with two bullets in his head.

Coroner Paul E. Kubasko first reported Cali had been slain but two days later rendered a verdict of suicide.

Mrs. Cali filed a claim for the money against the Public Service company and the Keystone Mutual Casualty Co., of Pittsburgh.

Reynolds Fails

Of World Flight

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Milton Reynolds, Chicago pen manufacturer and aviation enthusiast, arrived in San Francisco Monday from Honolulu more than 35 hours behind on his attempt to set a new world's roundtrip record by commercial airline.

Reynolds was delayed by bad weather in London and engine trouble at Midway Island.

The commercial airline round-the-world mark of four days, 23 hours and 5 minutes is held by Col. Edward Egan.

Report 415,321
On Relief In
State In Month

HARRISBURG, Nov. 8.—(INS)—The Department of Public Assistance reported that 415,321 persons on relief during October when steel and coal strikes boosted the burden and added 35,625 persons to the rolls.

Some improvement was noted as a result of settlement of the steel strike by some companies, the department said.

"Approximately 27 per cent of the cases coming on the rolls during the month contained either a coal miner or a steel worker while another seven per cent were opened because of discontinuance of benefit payments from the United Mine Workers welfare and retirement fund," the DPA explained.

"Another 22 per cent of the case openings were caused by layoffs in other industries, most of which represent indirect effects of the strikes."

Six per cent of the cases were opened because relatives were no longer able to provide support, according to the department.

Approximately 87 per cent of the increase in general assistance was concentrated in the bituminous and steel producing counties.

EXCHANGING WEDDING GIFTS

"A young man in our office married recently. Although we do not know the bride and were not invited to the wedding, we combined funds and sent her a set of dishes. I hear thank you note, she informed us that she had exchanged our set for something else, inasmuch as they had received two additional sets and had not the space to keep all three. Some say this is proper; others that it is not. What do you say?"

Answer: It is proper for the bride who has received duplicate gifts to ask one donor if she might exchange hers for something she lacks.

This is usually done among good friends or relatives who understand the situation better than mere acquaintances. The bride should graciously and diplomatically ask for permission to exchange a gift. Good friends sometimes give "exchange permission" along with a wedding gift.

The bride, in your case, should have invited you to visit her and at that time, if at all, explained her dilemma, giving you an opportunity to suggest that she exchange your dishes.

Question: In presenting a corsage at a shower, should I give it to the honor guest upon her arrival or should it be put on the dining table at her place?

Answer: It may be presented either when the honor guest arrives or it may be put at her place at the table. The latter is the usual custom.

Red Hurricane Will Battle Warren Hi Panthers Friday

Warren Harding High Black Panthers invade Taggart Stadium Friday night, prepared to shoot the works against the Red Hurricane.

The Ohio visitors have everything to gain here in the last regularly scheduled grid contest and nothing to lose. Playing their first season under Coach Chuck Riffle the Panthers have compiled a very mediocre record of 2 wins and 6 losses. Three of the losses have been administered by Canton McKinley, Mansfield and Massillon the top three high school eleven in the state of Ohio. A win here would make the season a success.

Warren opened the season by dropping Cleveland Collingwood 14 to 13, then dropped six in a row but came back last week to drub Erie Academy, 26 to 6. The latter is the only common foe of the Friday night contestants. New Castle just squeezed by the Lions 12 to 7.

Former Pro

Riffle is a former Harding High star tackle who matriculated at Notre Dame and played in the professional ranks with the New York Yankees. J. O. "Heinie" Beck, Riffle's predecessor, who really had the Canes' number, has been moved into the director of athletics position.

Riffle's Panthers have apparently found themselves in the last two games and are now ready to proceed with a seasonal duty, that of destroying a fine New Castle record. Warren held the vaunted Massillon Tigers at bay for three periods before succumbing 35 to 19 two weeks ago and then humbled the Academy eleven.

Canes Rehearse

New Castle came out of the Aliquippa game in good physical condition and started practice sessions yesterday to upset the Warren "Ironclads." The undefeated Canes viewed movies of the Friday night tilt, then went through a limbering up drill, ran a few plays, and added one or two to the repertoire. Buckey Tate joined in the regular practice session and will be ready for duty this week.

HURRICANE BREEZES

New Castle High Athletic Manager Robert Mills said today that to his knowledge, New Castle has NOT been formally approached concerning a post-season game in the south. Principal Book added that there is no WPIAL rule forbidding such a practice. Although their schedule is completed, the junior varsity continues to hold regular practices and will scrimmage against the varsity for the Warren and the playoff game. The movies showed no mouse-trapping but quick effective blocking opening large holes for the Aliquippa backs on those two drives. Dickie Altman made two steals Friday night but was only credited with one. His first attempt was balked by an official's whistle. Bo Wallace was the only regular from the varsity who missed yesterday's practice. McKeesport must defeat Ambridge Friday night to remain eligible for a Pitt Stadium game with the Red Hurricane.

Football Ticket

Sale Wednesday

Reserved seat tickets for the New Castle-Warren, O., grid game Friday at the stadium will go on sale Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock as usual. J. H. Earl McKenzie, business manager at New Castle High, stated this morning. It will be ten tickets to a customer as has been the custom. The ticket booth located back of the North street school will be open until 4 o'clock each day through Friday, and will open each day at 9 o'clock.

New Castle Rifle Club Loses Match

The New Castle Rifle club began its 1949-50 Interstate Rifle League season at Beaver Valley range last night, losing by a score of 1196 to 1174 to the Valleyites. Wilbur Thomas of the New Castle club shot the high string of 244 out of a 250 possible, but could not pull his team through. Beaver Valley had three men with 240 totals, showing a well balanced team.

The results: New Castle—Thomas 244, Williams 235, Carrigan 232, Brunton 232, Bowers 231—Total 1174. Beaver Valley—Lowman 240, McGrave 240, Geneive 240, Kimmei 238, Shipley 238—Total 1196.

Rickey To Name Manager Today

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Branch Rickey is expected today officially to elect the Brooklyn Dodgers manager for 1950. Rickey called a news conference ostensibly to clear up the cloudy Dodger managerial picture. Burt Shotton, incumbent pilot of the National league champions, is expected to be "re-elected". Shotton, who left New York for his Florida home a worried and dejected man immediately after the world series, was said to have been offered the job and his appointment depended on his consent.

Virginia Asks For Recognition

Virginia University Has Won Seven In Row, Hope To Finish Undeclared

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Notre Dame and Army must get the nod as the football class of the nation, but take it from the coach of Virginia U., his team is better than its national rating. Arthur L. Guepe, the youthful coach of the undefeated Cavaliers, insists that his club deserves more recognition in the college football picture.

"We have a very good chance of going through the season undefeated."

"I can't understand why we're not higher in the ratings of the major teams," he said.

Seven Straight
Virginia has won seven straight. Its most notable victory to date was last Saturday's 26 to 14 upset win over Penn.

Further light on the ability of the Virginians may be shed this week when mighty Army meets what it can do against in-and-out Penn.

The Cavaliers are an independent Dixie eleven. They do not receive a rating in any of the southern conferences.

Guepe's boys have beaten George Washington, Miami (of Ohio), VPI, Washington & Lee, VMI, West Virginia and Penn. The remaining two games on their schedule should tell the story.

Virginia is idle this week but closes out its season on successive Saturdays against Tulane and North Carolina.

Sam Snead Voted Golfer Of Year

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Slammin' Sammy Snead became the official PGA golfer of the year today by popular vote of the press and radio.

The balloting under sponsorship of the Professional Golfers Association of America, gave the White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., golfer the top post, with Cary Middlecott, Memphis, Tenn., second spot. Middlecott, who is United States open champion, also trails Snead in the official money winners to date. Johnny Palmer of Badin, N. C., was third, the same spot he holds in the financial race.

The plaque which accompanies the award to Snead will be presented to him at the PGA's president's dinner scheduled for Nov. 28 at the Mid-Pines hotel, South-Pines, N. C. One of the main reasons given by the sportscasters and sports writers who voted for Snead was in winning the PGA championship for 1949. He has won $30,893.83 in official PGA prize money this year, with only the Miami open prize left to be tabulated.

TOLEDO, O., Nov. 8.—(INS)—Sandy Saddler, ex-world featherweight champion, still ranked today as one of the top men in his class. The lanky New Yorker left-jabbed and hooked his way to unanimous decision over Leroy Willis of Detroit in a 10-round bout at Toledo last night.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

EVER see an Australian tag match? Provided you haven't, you've missed seeing an exciting affray, and also one of the best burlesques possible to stage. Such a match sends some mat fans into a frenzy and causes others to quake with laughter. At least, the tag match held recently in The Arena did this, and being the affray caught the fancy of folks who like grappling, another is docketed for November 16 between Billy Weidner and Jack Vansky paired against Pearre LaBelle and Cowboy Clemmons. In addition, there'll be a 30-minute opening match and a main one fall bout between the Italian, Gardini, a television performer, and Cyclone Anaya, said to be a Mexican champion. Gardini is a grappler who draws fans like molasses attracts flies, while Cyclone is touted as one of the best. Whether Gardini is a better grappler than Anaya, remains to be seen. Some say he is, while some wrestlers, themselves, claim that Anaya is the best wrestler in the world. Whether he is or not, there'll be oodles of action when they meet and the tag match is bound to prove pandemonium for some and an evening joyfully spent by others. Judging from the advance sale of pasteborders at the Jefferson Athletic club, (9025) The Arena, for once will draw a pay-day November 16.

Ne-Ca-Hi vs Aliquippa game was one of the most exciting in the history of New Castle football. It was packed with thrills galore. County league baseballers feted Saturday evening at Bessemer with Alec Samuels, Jim Martin and others long in the diamond sport present. It is unknown when the City loop will banquet. Lawrence County Sportsman association will meet the third Tuesday, November 15, in Ecclesian hall. Harry Pegg, Editor, Philadelphia Veteran Boxer, has picked up the Dan Sweeney vs Bob Fitzsimmons' yarn typed by Here & There for the magazine's next issue; also one told to Here & There by the late Frank Smith concerning the Kid Lavigne vs Joe Walcott fight in Frisco before 1900. Two men are under arrest for stuffing sponges in race horses' noses at Rockingham Park, N. J. The Big Ten in the J. B. Night Turn Bowling league follows: Balsacio 176, McGaffie 170, Vigliano 170; G. Woods 169, Rainey 167, Miller 166, Burrell 165, Forada 163, Bosco 162 and Kendra 161. Minnesota heads the loop with seven won, two lost, while Matt Vigliano held season high with 224 for one game and 565 for three games. Team high is held by Minnesota with 845 while Pitt holds one game high 255 and three game high of 2552. Pictures of Alaskan scenes will be displayed by the LCSA next Tuesday night.

Williams Spearheads Notre Dame Offense

By CHARLES EINHSTEIN

(International News Service Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Notre Dame was playing Southern California, and Notre Dame was in sad shape. Time was running out, and Notre Dame was behind.

"I think," said one tackle in the Notre Dame huddle, "we should pull this certain play."

"I disagree," the center said. "We ought to do this other thing instead."

"No," opined the end. "A pass into the flat."

A fourth voice cut into the conversation. "If you all will kindly shut up," the voice murmured, coolly, "I shall tell you what we are going to do."

Irish Get Tie

The voice told them what they were going to do, and—that was the last game of the 1948 season—the Irish pulled a tie out of what looked like utter defeat.

The voice belonged to Robert Allen Williams, a citizen of Baltimore, Md., who has an abiding admiration for the English language. English is his favorite subject in school. When he places himself on the football field, he talks to his teammates in fluid, precise tones. By this time, they are all a little awed by him.

Williams was substitute quarterback when he engineered Notre Dame's self-saving against Southern Cal, but he has stepped into his own this season, and is number one man in the tradition of Lujack, Bertelli, et al.

"Bob is destined to do great things," Coach Frank Leahy stated before the season began, and Bob was. Against Navy two weeks ago he threw three touchdown passes and handed off for two touchdowns.

Against Michigan State last Saturday, he threw two touchdown passes and went 40 yards for a score on his own hook, keeping the ball on one of Leahy's special bootleg plays.

He, as much as anyone, is the reason that Notre Dame is being sported about town as unofficial 40-point favorite over North Carolina in their Yankee Stadium game next Saturday.

Although the Irish actually will end up probably a four-touchdown choice over the Tarheels, their position is more solid than that. Their physical condition is supposed to be fine, whereas Charlie Justice, with a bad ankle, is of questionable worth to Carl Snavely, the North Carolina coach. None of this will keep anybody away from Yankee Stadium. The place is sold out.

Penn And Army Meet Saturday

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Coach George Munger called his first Monday practice of the season yesterday as Penn started preparations for Saturday's game with unbeaten, untied Army on Franklin field.

Munger tried out some new defense tactics, cautioning against the sharp passing of Army's Arnold Galiffa. The latter passed for the winning touchdown in the last 30 seconds of the 1948 game with Penn, which Army won, 26-20.

The Connecticut pace setters, who lead the American Hockey league's only contest.

Tomorrow night, however, six teams take to the ice in an effort to gain ground on the western division leading Cleveland Barons and the New Haven Ramblers, eastern division pace setters.

The Connecticut pucksters do not resume action until Thursday, while the Barons play their next game Saturday.

Bisons Can Tie

Although Buffalo's Bisons can move into a tie for the league lead before New Haven takes the ice again, the second place Indianapolis Caps will have to be satisfied to gain little-by-little on the Barons, who lead the Indiana leers by three full games.

In the statistics department, AHL scoring records show that Les Douglas of the Barons leads the league in scoring with 19 points. He is trailed by Ab DeMarco of Buffalo, a former Cleveland player, with 18 points.

SHAMROCKS TO MEET
Shamrock President Bill Fanin has asked that all members be present at a very important meeting of the club tonight at eight o'clock. Those who cannot attend should notify the president. The meeting will be held at the Y.

Following the business session the Shamrocks will hold a basketball practice on the Y floor.

Detroit Lions Get Leon Hart

Motor City Team Selects 6 Foot 4 Inch 265 Pound Notre Dame Star

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—(INS)—The Detroit Lions have selected Leon Hart, towering Notre Dame end, as their bonus player choice in the National Football league.

Hart, 20-year-old, 265-pounder who stands six feet four inches, is co-captain of the unbeaten Irish team.

Detroit was one of seven NFL teams eligible to draw from a hat for first crack at the current college football crop.

Players Chosen

In previous years the Philadelphia Eagles chose center Chuck Bednarik; the Chicago Bears picked quarterback Johnny Lujack and the Washington Redskins drew quarterback Harry Gilmer.

Following the choice of Hart, which was revealed by Detroit, each team made three bonus selections. Announcement of players is to be made by the individual teams.

The club representatives also agreed that the championship playoff final will take place in the city of the Western division winner Dec. 18 unless a sectional tie forces a later date.

WINGS TO PRACTICE

New Castle Wings of the Senior Y league will hold a practice session tonight at the Y floor. Practice time is nine o'clock.

Coach Chester Toscano will welcome any interested prospects to tryout with his squad.

Former Legion Star Signed By Pirates

Another former New Castle American Legion Junior baseball star is to receive a tryout in the big leagues—Merle Fredericks, 21-son of Rev. and Mrs. Raymond J. Fredericks of Medina, New York, has been signed to a Pittsburgh Pirate contract and will report to the Pirates farm at Tallahassee, Florida in the spring.

Young Fredericks who intends to make baseball his life career, was with the Kitchener, Ontario, Canada team in the Inter-County Senior league as a catcher and had a batting average of .412. While in New Castle with his parents, Fredericks caught with the Fannins in the Legion league. At Medina High school, the young man played baseball, football and basketball. While in New Castle he was a member of the New Castle High grid team of 1945, being used at tackle and end.

At Giants School

During the past summer at Kitchener, Fredericks had the opportunity of playing with several big leaguers and gained a wealth of baseball knowledge. In the spring of 1949 Fredericks was with the Giants system at Sanford, Florida, a tryout school, where he made good.

Unable to come to terms with the Giants, Fredericks wound up in the Canadian league, where he was the regular catcher, and had a chance to further his baseball knowledge. The Pirates scouts looked the young man over, last summer and made him a fine offer being signed as a bonus player. The Pirates think the big former New Castle boy has plenty of potentialities, and may some day make the big league grade. Fredericks is slightly over 6 feet and weighs about 175 pounds, when in shape for baseball.

Conclude Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Fredericks and son David have just concluded several days visit with his sister and her husband Mr. and Mrs. William Boston of Ellwood City, and his brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fredericks of East Washington street this city.

New Castle friends of the young man will be watching his rise in the baseball world with interest. Rev. Fredericks held a pastorate here for several years at the Calvary Gospel Tabernacle on Vogan street.

Ellwood-Wampum

To Hold Trapshoot

ELLWOOD CITY — Wampum Rod & Gun club will hold a trapshoot by floodlight, at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday. The ground are located along the Wampum-Ellwood City highway. Trapshooters should take their own guns. Shells are available on the grounds according to Secretary Harold McKim.

The New Castle Nats distinguished themselves in one department last year—drawing bases on balls. The Nats broke an all-time Middle Atlantic League record for Annie Oakleys with 921. The old record of 715 was set by Niagara Falls in 1947.

HE SHOULD HAVE

"STOOD" IN BED

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—Nimrod Warren Mitchell wasn't hunting trouble when he went into the woodlands in search of small game, but trouble is about all he found.

Within six hours, Mitchell: (1) Lost one of his dogs. (2) Lost his $75 watch as he searched unsuccessfully for the dog. (3) Tripped and sprained his ankle.

In between, Mitchell managed to snare two male ringneck pheasants.

Death Of Mays

Called Accident

Plan Funeral For Late Racing Star In Glendale, Cal., Thursday

GLENDALF, Cal., Nov. 8.—(INS)—Officials today classified the death of former automobile race champion Rex Mays as caused by an accident incident to his hazardous occupation.

Funeral rites for Mays will be conducted Thursday at Forest Lawn Memorial Park, not far from the Glendale home where he lived with his wife and two small children.

In San Diego Coroner Dave Boone said no inquest would be held. The sheriff's office closed its investigation with the filing of a report by a deputy sheriff who saw the popular "hot-foot" driver dies.

Killed Instantly

Mays, National AAA champion in 1940-41, was killed at Del Mar Sunday during the running of a 100-mile championship race, the AAA's final event of the season.

His out-of-control car tore down a section of fence and flung him onto the track in the path of other cars in the race. At least two of them struck him, killing him instantly.

Gordon Betz, regional director of the AAA, said the association was investigating the accident, but that both the inquiry and its findings would be kept secret.

The association refused, in particular, to permit a public showing of official motion pictures of the mishap.

The New Castle Nats distinguished themselves in one department last year—drawing bases on balls. The Nats broke an all-time Middle Atlantic League record for Annie Oakleys with 921. The old record of 715 was set by Niagara Falls in 1947.

Pastors Plan For Annual Services Thanksgiving Day

Dr. Robert French Of Butler Speaks On Butler Council Of Churches During Meeting

During the bi-weekly session of the New Castle Ministerial association conducted Monday in First Presbyterian church, North Jefferson street, plans were made for the annual Thanksgiving morning services to be conducted in the churches of the city.

Dr. Robert F. Galbreath, pastor of First Presbyterian church, was named chairman of the committee which will set up the program for November 24. Services are planned in the central city district, East Side, Croton, North Side, South Side and the Seventh Ward.

The committee on arrangements met following the Monday meeting to arrange for the service. All offerings taken during the Thanksgiving morning meetings are to be used in the Lawrence County Home chaplaincy fund.

The Monday meeting opened with a period of devotion conducted by Rev. James N. Rainey, pastor of Central Christian church. Rev. A. E. Simon presided at the piano. Dr. Robert M. Patterson, president of the association, directed the business period.

School of Evangelism
The ministers were requested to support the School of Evangelism to be conducted at Third U. P. church next week when Dr. Roy Black, noted evangelism leader, will be present to conduct the school.

Rev. E. D. Marshall, superintendent of the City Mission, asked the pastors to cooperate in the 38th anniversary services of the mission to be conducted in First Baptist church November 14 to 23 with Rev. Claude Moore, international president of the Union Gospel Missions, as speaker. A different church choir will be heard each night during the services.

Necessity for a clearing house in connection with the packing of Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets was mentioned. The pastors were reminded that each year duplication exists and some families receive several baskets, while others receive none.

Rev. Marshall of the mission was named chairman of the effort and each church, Sunday school class or other religious group packing baskets should turn in the names to him before the foodstuffs go out in order that a wise distribution would be made of the food.

Rev. Earl Collins announced the film, "Dust or Destiny," which would be shown in the city on November 22 in the Cathedral. The film, put out by Moody Bible Institute, will be sponsored by the Christian Business Men with all church groups cooperating.

Y. W. World Fellowship
Miss Dorothy Stewart, executive secretary of the Y. W. C. A., announced the annual Y. W. World Fellowship program which will be sponsored by the local "Y" at the Cathedral on November 29. A dinner will precede the program of the evening which will include word pictures of the world-wide Y. W. work.

The speaker of the day, Rev. Robert French, pastor of the First U. P. church of Butler, spoke on the "Butler Council of Churches." He told of the work being done by that organization, the mistakes made at first and then the progress that is being made now. He reported on the various community services being conducted by that organization as well as other services which are being rendered by the various church groups cooperating with it. The speaker was introduced by Rev. George Sarber, pastor of the Nazareth church. A roundtable discussion followed the address.

Less Candy Eaten During Past Year

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—(INS)—The sweet tooth of Americans is about one and one half pounds less sweeter than it was last year.

A report by the commerce department on candy sales by manufacturers indicated today that consumption per person would amount to about 16.7 pounds as compared with the 1948 average of 18.2 pounds.

Last year, the nation was sweetened by more than a billion dollars worth of candy sold by the industry—about 2.7 billion pounds. This year, however, the rate of sales is expected to amount to 2.5 billion pounds valued at 850 million dollars.

While more five-cent candy bars than 10-centers are sold, the report said that the output of nickel types dropped 14 per cent in 1948 dime bars increased 53 per cent.

Today's Fashion Flash

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Designers are still squabbling about skirt lengths and shoulder pads—but they're in accord on accordion pleats.

The accordion treatment was inaugurated to get around the problem of how a woman can look straight and slim, yet still have ease of movement. Pleats aplenty was the solution.

The accordion pleated look has been carried out in handbags, hat brims, bodices and even shoe vamp for spring.

Manufacturers assure the public that, in spite of the work and extra fabric involved, accordion pleats will not necessarily be expensive. Until the dry cleaner gets them, of course.
